Art Unit: 2811

1. Claim 31 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The specification never discloses a total area of the substantially horizontal surfaces greater than a total area of the substantially vertical surfaces as claimed in claim 31.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Nakajima et al.

In regards to claim 1, Nakajima et al. show all the elements of the claimed invention in fig. 1. It is a flat-type capacitor, comprising: a lower interconnection [8a] on a predetermined portion of a semiconductor substrate [1]; a lower electrode (a bottom portion of the capacitor lower electrode) [21] that has a flat shape, the lower electrode electrically coupled to the lower interconnection [8a], the lower interconnection [8a] disposed below the lower electrode [21]; a concave dielectric layer [25b] disposed on the lower electrode [21]; a concave upper electrode [26] disposed on the dielectric layer; a length of a bottom part of the concave upper electrode greater than a length of the lower electrode; a first upper interconnection [12] that is electrically coupled to the lower interconnection when the memory transistor is in an on-state; and a second upper interconnection [13] that is coupled to the first upper interconnection.

In regards to claim 2, Nakajima et al. further disclose the lower electrode [21] is positioned between edges of the concave upper electrode [26].

In regards to claim 3, Nakajima et al. further disclose the lower electrode (a top portion of the capacitor lower electrode) [24] and the upper electrode [26] are composed of TiN.

In regards to claim 4, Nakajima et al. further disclose the dielectric layer [25b] is composed of Ta₂O₅.

4. Applicant's arguments filed 9/7/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

It is urged, in page 5 of the remarks, that Nakajima clearly states that element 21 is a polycrystalline silicon plug and element 24 is a cup-shaped lower electrode. Since element 21 is also electrically connected to the lower electrode 24, it is considered as a part of the lower electrode. Therefore, a length of a bottom part of the concave upper electrode 26 is greater than a length of the lower electrode 21. Nakajima discloses the claimed subject matters as claimed in claims 1-4.

5. Claims 5-11 are allowed.

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
